DRESS CODE

Please be modest. While this list does not include every imaginable article of clothing or fashion trend, here are some guidelines to help you keep everyone's best interests in mind.

- Tops end where bottoms begin. Your midriff belongs behind one or the other.
- We're all about unity when it comes to swimwear. Please wear modest one-piece bathing suits only.
- Underwear belongs UNDER your other clothes. Don't go showing it off.
- Sleepwear is for sleeping in. Please don't wear your jammies around camp.
- Yoga pants are for doing yoga in. Save the tight-fitting pants/shorts for the gym back home, or cover them with a long shirt.
- And as ironic as it may sound, the longer the shorts, the better. At least fingertip length, please. That about "covers" it - please do likewise (pun intended).

CABIN CLEANUP

Each day, there is a cabin cleanup theme. Monday is anything pertaining to the camp theme, Tuesday is manly men and girly girls, Wednesday is counselor appreciation day, and Thursday is traps and tricks. Many campers and counselors like to bring decorating supplies for this purpose. It's a fun way to build cabin unity and earn points for your team. Please do not use duct tape on walls or bunks, lipstick on mirrors, or anything else that leaves a mess.

CRAZY COSTUME NIGHT

On Wednesday night, for dinner, we plan to have a crazy costume night. Find something fun at your local thrift store and try to outdo each other with silly throwback costumes or weird styles that'll make us laugh.
