You do not need to redo your whole estate plan to begin. Choose the one step below that fits you today — you can change it later.

1 Give from your IRA this year AGE 70½ AND OLDER

A Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) sends money directly from your IRA to camp and is not counted as taxable income.

- You must be 70½ or older the day the gift is made.
- If you are at RMD age (73 for most people today; 75 if born in 1960 or later), a QCD counts toward that year's RMD.
- 2026 limit: $111,000 per person per year (spouses with separate IRAs each have their own limit).
- Your IRA company must send it directly to camp — "Payable to Hartland Christian Association" — with your name and address enclosed for your receipt.

2 Name camp as a beneficiary NO WILL CHANGE NEEDED

Often the fastest legacy gift: update a beneficiary form and the gift passes directly to camp, outside probate.

- Use it for: IRAs, life insurance, annuities, and many bank or brokerage accounts (ask for a payable-on-death / transfer-on-death form).
- You choose the share (e.g., 90% family, 10% camp). Copy the box below exactly; most forms take minutes.

3 Include camp in your will or trust WITH YOUR ATTORNEY

If you are writing or updating a will or living trust, your attorney can add one short paragraph — a dollar amount, a percentage, or what remains after family is provided for.

FOR A WILL OR TRUST, SHARE THIS PARAGRAPH:

"I give [____% / $ _____ / the remainder] of my estate to Hartland Christian Association, dba Hartland Christian Camp, 57611 Eshom Valley Drive, Badger, CA 93603, Tax ID 94-1639159, for its general charitable purposes."

For camper scholarships (camperships), replace "for its general charitable purposes" with "for camper scholarships."

Your simple next steps

1. Pick one way above — IRA gift, beneficiary update, or will provision.
2. Copy the box exactly so your gift reaches the right place.
3. Tell someone you trust where you filed the form.

Good to know: keep the acknowledgment letter we send after a QCD for your tax records. You cannot also claim a charitable deduction for the same QCD gift.
